Introduction

The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 ("FOISA") and the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004 ("EIR") place a general obligation on Scottish Public Authorities to allow the public access to information that they hold. Both FOISA and EIR are overseen by the Scottish Information Commissioner ("SIC").

From 11 November 2019 Barrhead Housing Group will be designated as Scottish Public Authority and will need to make information available in accordance with FOISA and EIR.

This is the Freedom of Information and Environmental Information Policy of Barrhead Housing Group. The policy will:

- provide a general understanding of FOISA and EIR; and

- Compliance with this policy is compulsory for all employees of Barrhead Housing Group

Scope of the Policy

This policy applies to any information held by Barrhead Housing Group which relates to one or more of the functions set out above, regardless of format. This will include information created internally and information received from third parties. It will also relate to information which is held on behalf of Barrhead Housing Group.

This policy applies to all Barrhead Housing Group employees.

Background

Barrhead Housing Group is subject to both FOISA and EIR by virtue of the: Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (Designation of Persons as Scottish Public Authorities) Order 2019 (the "Order").

The Order came into effect on 11 November 2019 and brought all Registered Social Landlords ("RSLs") and certain RSL subsidiaries under the scope of FOISA and the EIR.

What is subject to FOISA and EIR?

However, in accordance with the terms of the Order, not everything that Barrhead Housing Group does is subject to FOISA and EIR. Instead, Barrhead Housing Group is only subject to these regimes in respect of certain functions, namely 'housing services' (as defined in s.165 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2010) which Barrhead Housing Group carries out – subject to some restrictions. Looking at the definition of 'housing services' and the restrictions which are set out in the Order the following functions carried out by Barrhead Housing Group are covered by FOISA and EIR:

- the prevention and alleviation of homelessness
- the management of social housing accommodation
- the supply of information to the Scottish Housing Regulator (SHR) by an RSL or a connected body (i.e. a subsidiary) in relation to its financial wellbeing and standards of governance.

What is the difference between FOISA and EIR?

EIR provides a right of access to 'Environmental Information' held by Barrhead Housing Group. Environmental Information has a very wide definition which is set out in Regulations. Where a request under FOISA is received for Environmental Information it should be processed in accordance with EIR.

Whilst the obligation under FOISA and EIR are similar – there are some key differences that employees must be aware of when dealing with requests for information. Further guidance on the differences are available on SIC's website.

Legal Duties

Barrhead Housing Group has a number of legal duties which it must comply with under FOISA and EIR. These are set out in more detail below:

Responding to Information Requests

People have the right to request information from Barrhead Housing Group. Where the information requested is within the scope of the Order and Barrhead Housing Group holds that information it must release the information unless an exemption (under FOISA) or an exception (under EIR) applies. Barrhead Housing Group shall, when responding to requests for information from individuals, follow the Section 60 Code of Practice and any relevant guidance produced by SIC.

Barrhead Housing Group will aim to respond to information requests promptly, and in any event within 20 working days of receiving the request (except in some circumstances under EIR where Barrhead Housing Group is entitled to extend the timescale for responding by an additional 20 working days).

Where Barrhead Housing Group is providing an individual with the information they have requested they will, in so far as is reasonable to do so, provide information in the format that the individual has requested and will adhere to any duties under the Equality Act 2010. Where Barrhead Housing Group is refusing to provide information to individuals it will clearly explain to said individual what provision in FOISA or EIR allows Barrhead Housing Group to withhold that information and why Barrhead Housing Group believes that provision applies (including, where required, an explanation of how Barrhead Housing Group has carried out the Public Interest Test).

Where Barrhead Housing Group is asked to provide information which it does not hold, but Barrhead Housing Group knows that another Scottish Public Authority does hold the requested information – Barrhead Housing Group shall provide contact details of said Authority to the individual requesting the information and explain that the individual may wish to request the information from that Scottish Public Authority. Where a request is being handled under EIR and these circumstances apply Barrhead Housing Group shall offer to transfer the individual's request to the other Scottish Public Authority.

Barrhead Housing Group may choose to charge for fulfilling information requests received from individuals. Any charges made by Barrhead Housing Group shall be made in accordance with:

- for requests being handled under FOISA: the Freedom of Information (Fees for Required Disclosure) (Scotland) Regulations 2004
- for requests being handled under EIR: the Schedule of Charges of Barrhead Housing Group

Any fee charged by Barrhead Housing Group will be reasonable and will not exceed the costs to Barrhead Housing Group of providing requested information.

Responding to Requests for Review

Where someone has requested information from Barrhead Housing Group and:

- Barrhead Housing Group has failed to respond to the request within the 20 working day deadline (or extended deadline in respect of certain requests made under EIR); or
- the person requesting the information is unhappy with the response to the request (for example where information has been withheld under one of the exemptions or exceptions available under FOISA/EIR)

then they have the right to request that Barrhead Housing Group reviews the response to their request to determine whether or not the provisions of FOISA or EIR have been followed. This review will be carried out by the Chief Executive, or a senior officer nominated by the Chief Executive.

Where Barrhead Housing Group performs a review and determines that a response to a request is not in accordance with FOISA or EIR Barrhead Housing Group will take immediate steps to rectify this (which could, for example, include releasing information which was previously withheld).

Where Barrhead Housing Group performs a review and determines that a response to a request is in accordance with FOISA or EIR then Barrhead Housing Group will notify the individual who asked for a review as quickly as possible.

In any event Barrhead Housing Group will handle all requests for review in accordance with the timescales set out in FOISA and EIR.

Where an individual is unhappy with the response to their review request they may appeal to SIC. If an appeal is made by SIC and a decision handed down by them both Barrhead Housing Group and the individual in question have a right to appeal to the courts on a point of law.

Provision of Advice and Assistance to Individuals

Barrhead Housing Group must provide individuals seeking to access information with advice and assistance. This advice and assistance will be provided with a view to ensuring that all barriers which may potentially prevent an individual from accessing information are removed. Barrhead Housing Group will comply with this duty by following the guidance contained in the Section 60 Code of Practice issued by Scottish Ministers.

Publication of Information

Barrhead Housing Group shall publish information in accordance with its Publication Scheme through its Guide to Information. The Guide to Information of Barrhead Housing Group will be available on our website here, and a paper format will also be available on request.

Data Protection

Barrhead Housing Group is committed to upholding its data protection obligations set out in the GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018.

Under data protection laws, individuals have the right to request access to all of the information that Barrhead Housing Group holds about them. This and other rights that individuals have under data protection are not covered by this policy and you should refer to the Association's Data Protection Policies and Privacy Statement when dealing with these rights.
